

---

College of Health Sciences
Electrocardiograph Technician

According to Centers for Disease Control (CDC) guidelines, all healthcare professionals are required by the healthcare facilities to have their mandatory immunizations. If your program has a credentialing component, it could be impacted by a misdemeanor or felony conviction. Applicants should familiarize themselves with the laws of the state in which they wish to seek their certification.

Please note: Healthcare facilities could require drug screenings for all employees.

---

Prospective Student Name (print)

---

Prospective Student Signature

---

Date